For Immediate Release:

Coney Island Businesses are Looking to Hire over 400 Employees for the Summer Season

Coney Island, April 28, 2022 – The world-famous Coney Island business community is looking to fill over 400 positions ahead of its busy summer season. With numerous available opportunities ranging from part-time to full-time, positions include assistant teacher, food service, cashiers, ride operators, and more.

Attendees will have the opportunity to meet one-on-one with a Workforce 1 manager for a pre-screening and interview guidance before meeting directly and in person with the employers. The two-day event will be on Monday, May 9th, and Tuesday, May 10th and will have employers from local businesses including the Coney Island Brewery, Deno's Wonder Wheel Amusement Park, Live Nation, Luna Park in Coney Island, and local non-profit organization Brooklyn Community Services.

Now in its 12th year, this collaboration among community partners, the Alliance for Coney Island, Small Business Services Workforce 1, and the newly appointed Councilmember Ari Kagan, the Workforce1 recruitment event has been able to connect over 5,000 job seekers with employment opportunities across the amusement district.

Job seekers can arrive at the event between 10 am to 3 pm and are requested to bring two copies of their resume. The event will be held at the Coney Island Amphitheater at 3052 West 21st Street and applicants should enter at West 22nd Street.
