WELCOME TO CONEY ISLAND MURAL INSTALLATION RIBBON-CUTTING

A ribbon-cutting ceremony with elected officials and the local community is planned for Wednesday, June 2nd to celebrate the newest mural in Coney Island

May 26, 2022 – The Alliance for Coney Island is excited to celebrate the completion of its largest mural to date. Located on the rear wall of Gargiulo's Restaurant on Stillwell Avenue directly across the street from the Stillwell Avenue Subway Station, the length of this prominent wall measures over 150 feet. The new mural created and painted by artist Danielle Mastrion serves as a bright and welcoming gateway to the area for both residents and visitors. The mural was fully funded by a New York Main Street grant from New York State Office of Home & Community Renewal (HCR).

Who: The Alliance for Coney Island, Owners of Gargiulo's Restaurant, Representative from the Office of Senator Savino's Office, Councilman Ari Kagan, local Coney Island businesses, and community stakeholders and residents

What: Ribbon cutting to officially celebrate the "Welcome to Coney Island" mural installation

Where: 2920 Stillwell Avenue Brooklyn, NY 11224

When: Thursday, June 2nd at 11:00 am

If possible, please RSVP your media outlet's attendance.

Visitors can stay up-to-date on all Coney Island events through their social media channels @ConeyIslandFun and website ConeyIslandFunGuide.com.
