CONEY ISLAND TO HOST ADDITIONAL FIREWORKS DISPLAY TO CELEBRATE THE END OF SUMMER

Coney Island is ending summer with a bang!

Coney Island, September 7, 2021– The People’s Playground is not ready for summer to be over! For the first time ever, the Alliance for Coney Island will be hosting an “End of Summer” fireworks show at 8PM on Friday, September 10th. While COVID-19 may have prevented several businesses from opening in 2020, the 2021 season has welcomed back thousands of thrill-seekers to the peninsula. The fireworks show will mark the end of beach season in Coney Island with several local amusements shifting into a weekends only operation after this week, excluding Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, and Italian Heritage Day/Indigenous People’s Day. As the season turns to Fall, local restaurants, shops and the New York Aquarium continue to be open daily. The Alliance for Coney Island is encouraging visitors to come to Coney Island and celebrate the last moments of summer with fireworks before students go back to school.

“We are excited to provide a final fireworks show for the 2021 season. Fridays have been a major highlight of summer with fireworks helping to stimulate our economy and support our businesses. A huge thank you to Garden State Fireworks for their work and partnership throughout the years to bring these shows to Coney Island! We hope New Yorkers will join us and enjoy this final show,” said Alexandra Silversmith, Executive Director of the Alliance for Coney Island.
